Suspension of trading in LGL's American Depositary Share program

Lihir Gold Limited ("LGL") today announced that trading on NASDAQ in LGL's American Depositary Shares (represented by American Depositary Receipts or "ADRs") will be suspended prior to the opening of trading on Monday, 30 August 2010 (New York time) and that LGL intends to withdraw the listing of the ADRs and the underlying ordinary shares from NASDAQ. This follows the suspension of trading of LGL ordinary shares on the Australian Securities Exchange ("ASX") and the Port Moresby Stock Exchange ("POMSoX") from close of trading today, Monday, 30 August 2010 (Australian time).

These are further steps in implementing the merger of LGL with Newcrest Mining Limited ("Newcrest"), which was approved by the majority of LGL's shareholders at the Scheme meeting held on Monday, 23 August and by the National Court of Papua New Guinea on Friday, 27 August.

New Newcrest shares

The New Newcrest shares to be issued under the Scheme will commence trading on ASX and POMSoX on a deferred settlement basis on Tuesday, 31 August 2010. Newcrest has announced that it expects that confirmations of issue of the New Newcrest Shares will be despatched by Tuesday 21 September 2010 and normal settlement trading will commence on the following day, Wednesday 22 September 2010.

Newcrest's equity securities are not expected to be listed on any exchange in the United States, but Newcrest's ADRs will continue to trade in the "over-the-counter" market.

Mix and Match Facility

LGL shareholders wishing to make a Scheme Consideration Election for the scheme consideration and the mix and match facility may still do so by returning an Election Form so that it is received by the LGL Registry before 9.00pm on 6 September 2010 or by making a scheme consideration election via the LGL website at www.lglgold.com and following the relevant instructions, before 9.00pm on 6 September 2010. The deadline for LGL ADS holders to deliver a Scheme Consideration election to the LGL ADS Depositary is 5:00pm on Tuesday, 31 August 2010 (New York time).
